F. W. Marshall, of the East End, a conductor on the East Liverpool railway, has received word from his brother, George H. Marshall, of Hamilton, O., stating that he has resigned his position as physical director of the Y. M. C. A. of that city.

Mr. Marshall is well known in this city, where he has a number of relatives, and he has held the position from which he has just resigned for several years. His work there has been spoken of in the highest terms. Mr. Marshall will not enter this work again, it is said, and his early arrival in the East End is expected. The resignation takes effect March 31.

COAL LAND IN DEMAND

Justice Carman Tells of the Activity Pennsylvania Proposes to Haul Big in Leases in Washington County, Pa.

Justice L. W. Carman has returned to the East End after spending a week in Washington county, Pa. He made the trip for a large coal operating firm who desired to lease about 800 acres along the route of the Wabash railroad in that county. Coal lands in that section, said Justice Carman, are being leased for from $100 to $150 an acre, and the territory is thick with coal operators who will lease at any price.

Mr. Carman owns considerable property in the county, and may make another trip there within a few weeks.

The Bowerston grade might interfere, but it is thought the difficulty can be overcome so that 70-car slow freight trains can be moved over the Pennsylvania lines between Dennison and Pittsburg, a distance of 92 miles, in a day.

Another advantage in this arrangement will be the extension of the New Cumberland branch of the Panhandle. Eventually this may mean the discontinuation of the Ohio river Attitude of Coal Operators In the connecting bridge near Pittsburg, and a new road along the cliff above the P. & L. E. tracks.

The Pennsylvania lines' low grade tric Railway company. New Cumberland Junction on one side, and Steubenville and Rochester and Pittsburg on the other side. The next move will be to establish a throat. Electric Oil cured me in twenthrough line along the river grades to ty-four hours." M. S. Gist, Hawespermit freight trains hauled by one engine to haul 70 cars between Wheel ing and Pittsburg and Dennison and Pittsburg. The Bowerston grade might interfere, but it is thought the difficulty can be overcome so that 70-car slow freight trains can be moved over the Pennsylvania lines between Dennison and Pittsburg, a distance of 92 miles in a day.

Another advantage in this arrange ment will be the extension of the New Cumberland branch of the Panhandle. Eventually this may mean the discontinuation of the Ohio river connecting bridge near Pittsburg, and a new road along the cliff above the P. & L. E. tracks.

DESIRE REDUCED SCALE.

Attitude of Coal Operators In the Altoona Dirrict. Altoona, Pa, March 14.-The United Mine Workers of America, after being in executive session all forenoon yesterday, met the operators in joint session at the Logan house. National Secretary William B. Wilson, who had just arrived from Indianapolis, was called to preside. After some general discussion a scale committee was appointed, consisting of Frank Wigton, L. W. Robinson, James Kerr, J. B. Irish, R. A. Shillingford and W. T. Stineman, for the operators, and David Irwin, Martin McDermott, William Currie, M. A. Young, Richard Crago and William Broad, for the miners. This joint committee held its first meeting last night. The operators will demand a reduced scale, alleging that car shortage and other conditions have made the coal business less profitable than last year. At the afternoon session of the miners a resolution inviting Gubernatorial Candidates Elkins and Watres to address the convention today was voted down. Three sub-disber up to nine.

HE properties of the Green Mountain Mining and Milling Company consists of twelve claims lying in one body, on the east slope of Green Mountain in Cunniangham Gulch, San Juan County, Colorado, and is crossed for a distance of three thousand feet by three parallel veins which average from 15 to 21 feet in width and of good milling ore of $60 to $90 per ton consentrates. The company has been operating, developing and driving tunnels since May 1st, 1901, in determining the value and extent of the property and now know what they have, having paid the expenses themselves during the period of uncertainty. For the purpose of completing development and equipment of our mines we now offer to the investor stock in a home mining company, almost ready to start its career as a dividend payer, with the element of uncertainty eliminated.

Assay reports samples of ore from the different workings. Official receipts of ore shipped may be seen at the office of S. J. AMERICAN NEGROES' SUCCESS

Demonstrate Cotton Can Be Grown In German South Africa.

Berlin, March 14.-The negroes of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial institute, in the United States, who were engaged the latter part of 1900 by the German government to teach the natives of Togoland, German West Africa, how to grow cotton, have, according to the report of the colonial committee, succeeded in producing cotton which is graded on the Bremen exchange above American middling. The Tuskegee negroes have demonstrated that the land in Togoland is suitable for cotton, which there is great abundance. The only obstacle to the commercial utilization of this product is transportation, and especially getting the bales to the coast. The colonial committee has sent an expedition of engineers to survey for a railroad from the coast town of Lome to Palime, in the interior.

AMERICAN NEGROES' SUCCESS. Demonstrate Cotton Can Be Grown In German South Africa.

Berlin, March 14.-The negroes of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial institute, in the United States, who were engaged the latter part of 1900 by the German government to teach the natives of Togoland, German West Africa, how to grow cotton, have, according to the report of the colonial committee, succeeded in producing cotton which is graded on the Bremen exchange above American middling. The Tuskegee negroes have demonstrated that the land in Togoland is suitable for cotton, which there is great abundance. The only obstacle to the commer cial utilization of this product is transportation, and especially getting the bales to the coast. The colonial committee has sent an expedition of engineers to survey for a railroad from the coast town of Lome to Palime, in the interior.

POTTERY NEWS

An interesting resolution was passed at the last meeting of jiggermen's local No. 12, and it is one that will likely cause considerable discussion at the next national convention. It relates to the apprentice question, and the substance of it is that the manufacturers will stop the practice of placing a batter-out on a jigger when a journeyman jiggerman is available. The question has been discussed at length at several meetings of the local, but final action was not taken until this week. The local also proposes to establish an employment bureau. and when a jiggerman is out of work McKeone. By this means manufacturers may be furnished with a man on short notice by notifying Mr. McKeone of a situation being open. The secretary is employed at the Wallace & Chetwynd. This system has been attempted in other locals with a considerable degree of success, and now it will be put in operation by No. 12.

POTTERY NEWS

An interesting resolution was passed at the last meeting of jiggermen's local No. 12, and it is one that will likely cause considerable discussion at the next national convention. It relates to the apprentice question, and the substance of it is that the manufacturers will stop the practice of placing a batter-out on a jigger when a journeyman jiggerman is available. The question has been discussed at length at several meetings of the local. but final action was not taken until this week. The local also proposes to establish an employment bureau. and when a jiggerman is out of work he is to notify the secretary, Walter McKeone. By this means manufacturers may be furnished with a man on short notice by notifying Mr. McKeone of a situation being open. The secretary is employed at the Wallace & Chetwynd. This system has been attempted in other locals with a considerable degree of success, and now resident of Pittsburg, died at Wells- it will be put in operation by No. 12.

Letters announcing this were received in this city recently, and those who received the word are considering the proposition. There is a very good quality of clay found in that section, and last fall several pieces of ware were made here from clay found there. The clay is said to possess some very good qualities.

The fillers-in and decalcomania workers met in the Fowler hall last night completed the list of officers for the government of the new local. They are as follows: Statistician, Sarah Lease; 1 per cent secretary, Anna Maley; trustees, Jennie McCann, Anna Ward, Miss Vogt; inspector, Sadie Wilson; guard, Miss Evans. An interesting resolution was passed at the last meeting of jiggermen's local No. 12, and it is one that will likely cause considerable discussion at the next national convention. It relates to the apprentice question, and the substance of it is that the manufacturers will stop the practice of placing a batter-out on a jigger when a journeyman jiggerman is available. The question has been discussed at length at several meetings of the local, but final action was not taken until this week. The local also proposes to establish an employment bureau. and when a jiggerman is out of work he is to notify the secretary, Walter McKeone. By this means manufacturers may be furnished with a man on short notice by notifying Mr. McKeone of a situation being open. The secretary is employed at the Wallace & Chetwynd. This system has been attempted in other locals with a considerable degree of success, and now it will be put in operation by No. 12.

With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. Gov. Crane. Will Try to Get N. Y., N. H. and H. Road to Do as Desired.

REINSTATEMENT OF OLD MEN

By Railroads and Steamship Lines. He Said He Would Try to Secure. Unions Accepted - Believed, in Time, All Old Men Will Get Back.

Boston, March 14.-Yesterday was filled with conferences between representatives of the various labor un ions and the city's business interests in which Gov. Crane, Mayor Collins, Secretary Easley, of the National Civic Federation and the state board of arbitration took important parts. Every one was fully impressed with the gravity of the situation and felt the absolute necessity of an immédiate settlement.

As early as 8 o'clock, Secretary Easley who had arrived from New York on the night train met a number of labo: leaders at Young's hotel where their side of the controversy was explained to him in detail.

At 12 o'clock those in attendance proceeded to the rooms of the state board of arbitration at the state house and met representatives of various mercantile bodies of the city, the officials of the various railroads and Mayor Collins when a free interchance of ideas was had for more than three hours.

Gov. Crane had a representative present.

REINSTATEMENT OF OLD MEN

By Railroads and Steamship Lines, He Said He Would Try to Secure. Unions Accepted - Believed, in Time, All Old Men Will Get Back.

Boston, March 14.-Yesterday was filled with conferences between representatives of the various labor unions and the city's business interests in which Gov. Crane, Mayor Collins, Secretary Easley, of the National Civic Federation and the state board of arbitration took important parts. Every one was fully impressed with the gravity of the situation and felt the absolute necessity of an immédiate settlement.

As early as 8 o'clock, Secretary Easley who had arrived from New York on the night train met a number of labo: leaders at Young's hotel where their side of the controversy was explained to him in detail.

At 12 o'clock those in attendance proceeded to the rooms of the state board of arbitration at the state house and met representatives of various mercantile bodies of the city, the officials of the various railroads and Mayor Collins when a free interchance of ideas was had for more than three hours.

Gov. Crane had a representative present. Two Meetings Conferred.

The outcome of this meeting was be mutually agreed upon as a basis settlement in consultation with Governor Crane. This committee, representing the state board of arbitration, merchants and the labor unions, together with Secretary Easley, then waited upon the governor and were closeted with him for two hours. Meantime a large number of labor leaders had arrived at the state ended and the large number of new house and then went into conference in the council chamber, which adjoins the office of the governor.

The door between the rooms was open much of the time and there was they all will regain their old posia general exchange of ideas and tions. propositions between the two deliberative bodies.

Governor Crane, while impressing pledges for any of the interested parties, made the following proposition:

those of the men who can will return whose non-union teams precipitated to their work, I will, as governor of the strike of the New York, New the commonwealth, use my best ef. Haven and Hartford freight handlers, forts with the New York, New Haven does not appear to have figured in the and Hartford railroad to have them settlement of the present controders, which will be in conformity versy, and is far as that company is with those already adopted by the Boston and Maine railroad regarding the loading and unloading of teams.'

Unions Accepted Crane's Proposal.

Governor Crane impressed every one present with his deep interest in the matter, and it was largely through his influence that the repre. band was the warden. One case is sentatives of the labor unions present unanimously agreed to recommend to their various unions that the strike be declared off and that every man on strike return to work today.

When the conference with the governor ended nothing remained for the the appointment of a committee of committee except to make its report seven to devise some plan that might in the board of arbitration rooms to the meeting which had delegated it.

The decision was at once reported to the Allied Freight Transportation Council at a special meeting last night and unanimously endorsed it.

All of the old men for whom places can be found will be taken back by the railroads today, but owing to the suddenness with which the strike men who have been installed it is likely that many of the old employes will today find no vacancies ready for them. Eventually, it is believed.

Teamsters and longshoremen will find unprecedented demand for their services and traffic of all descriptions. upon those present the fact that he which has been virtually at a standhad absolutely no authority to make still for three or four days, will be resumed today with a rush.

DIAMOND BACK TERRAPIN.

Formerly Despised. They Are Considered a Delicacy. Half a century or so ago diamond back terrapin were fed to slaves and hogs. Today they are the rarest delicacy known to the epicurian world, says the Philadelphia North American. Then they sold for $1 a barrel, and laborers, when hiring out, specified that they must not be compelled to eat terrapin more than twice a week. Today a barrel is cheap at $800, and millionaires travel hundreds of miles for a chance to feast on this most delicious of all meats.

Of course this means genuine diamond backs. There are many imita-

Every first class restaurant in the country features "terrapin a la Maryland" on its menu, but in not one case out of a hundred is the real terrapin served. The diner regales himself on what he believes to be Maryland's choicest dish. Instead he is merely eating fresh water turtles, "sliders" or "North Carolina goldens."

The reason is simple. Restaurateurs don't serve real diamond backs because they can't get them. The world's total terrapin population does not exceed 25,000 of legal size, and fhese are confined to the shores of the Chesapeake bay, the only place that produces

Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York enjoy a monopoly. These three cities get practically the entire output, but few ever find their way across the Blue Ridge. The epicure unfortunate enough to be born in Chicago or St. Louis must either confe east or forego the joys of terrapin.

To select a real diamond back amateurs should be guided by these distinguishing and characteristic markings: It is of a greenish, dark olive color, sometimes running to spotted gray, yellow on the plate which surrounds the shell and has concentric dark stripes along the plate on both shells. The sides of the head are a dirty white, sprinkled with small black spots. The bottom shell is of whitish yellow. The males are much larger than the females and have the concentric streaks much better defined. The female has the more delicate flesh. The male can be distinguished by his toe nails, which are much longer than those of the fe-

Speeches Made Reviewing the Past And Present And Predicting a Still More Glorious Future-Prizes in the Membership Contest.

The Y. M. C. A. anniversary and membership social last evening was a success beyond expectation. It was a joyous occasion, too, for when the work of the association for the past year was presented and reviewed in detail every friend and every member of the organization found in the re-

The auditorium was well filled with the members of the Y. M. C. A. and the ladies' auxiliary when Secretary Wright called the gathering to order and announced that a few brief speeches dealing with the past, the present and the future of the local association were in order.

A. H. Bulger, a member of the board of trustees since the association was formed, was the first speaker. He told of the formation of the Y. M. C. A, some 12 years ago, following a season of religious revival in a local church; how the association at first had no suitable quarters and was obliged to hold its meetings in the Presbyterian church lecture room. After a time the organization had grown until it was able to rent rooms in the present postoffice building, which were fitted up as gymnasium, auditorium, reading rooms, etc. Years later the opportunity of securing the present quarters with ground floor privileges, as well as more room, was presented and embraced.

Mr. Bulger reviewed the work accomplished for the association by H. W. Stough, A. E. Gazeley, Will Morris, W. F. Charles and others, who served successively as secretaries. and of the trials and struggles to keep the organization alive and useful. In the time of the panic, when felt compelled to close their doors, the East Liverpool Y. M. C. A. kept on doing business and doing good. until such a time as a proper man could be secured.

Supt. R. E. Rayman was next called upon to speak of the present of the association and he presented simply, eloquently and impressively the story of the great work accomplished in the past year. When M. C. Wright took year ago, opening the long closed rooms to the public, there were 70 members in good standing on the rolls. Rayman thought any organization or concern that could increase its business to that extent in a year was doing well. The membership of the East Liverpool Y. M. C. A. today is surpassed by associations in only four each of the four has a finely equipped

What has been accomplished by Secretary Wright in debt paying, in renovating the building, in organizing the ladies' auxiliary, in the formation cational purposes was eloquently touched upon, and the constant influence of such an organization working for the salvation and uplifting of young men was characterized as inspiring and elevating. Mr. Rayman paid a well deserved tribute to Secretary Wright as a man who not only knows how Y. M. C. A. work should be done, but how to go ahead and get it done. Secretary Wright next spoke on the future prospects of the association. Although in the neighborhood of $8, 000 has been collected and paid out $3,265, there is still a considerable

Efforts to Get Cheaper Rates to Pittsburg May Bear Fruit.

Dr. R. J. Marshall, councilman from the Fifth ward, has had a card up his sleeve which has just been made public. It is the idea of having the passenger rates between this city and Pittsburg reduced to at least 35 cents less than the present fare. Several weeks ago Councilman Marshall wrote the C. & P. passenger officials asking them to consider the idea of reducing the rates.

F. W. Marshall, of the East End, a conductor on the East Liverpool railway, has received word from his brother, George H. Marshall, of Hamilton, O., stating that he has resigned his position as physical director of the Y. M. C. A. of that city.

Mr. Marshall is well known in this city, where he has a number of relatives, and he has held the position from which he has just resigned for several years. His work there has been spoken of in the highest terms. Mr. Marshall will not enter this work again, it is said, and his early arrival in the East End is expected. The res ignation takes effect March 31.

COAL LAND IN DEMAND

Justice Carman Tells of the Activity in Leases in Washington County, Pa.

Justice L. W. Carman has returned to the East End after spending a week in Washington county, Pa. He made the trip for a large coal operating acres along the route of the Wabash railroad in that county. Coal lands in that section, said Justice Carman, are being leased for from $100 to $150 an acre, and the territory is thick with coal operators who will lease at any price.

Mr. Carman owns considerable property in the county, and may make another trip there within a few weeks.

Week of Prayer Services.

A week of prayer will be observed at the Second U. P. church next week, prior to the regular communion service, which will be held at this church one week from Sunday. The services at this church Sunday will be in charge of Rev. Mr. Brownlee, of Riche mond, Jefferson county. Who will have charge of the communion service is not yet known.

AMERICAN NEGROES' SUCCESS Demonstrate Cotton Can Be Grown

In German South Africa. Berlin, March 14.-The negroes of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial institute, in the United States, who were engaged the latter part of 1900 by the German government to teach the natives of Togoland, German West Africa, how to grow cotton, have, according to the report of the colonial committee, succeeded in producing cotton which is graded on the Bremen exchange above American middling. The Tuskegee negroes have demonstrated that the land in Togoland is suitable for cotton, which there is great abundance. The only obstacle to the commercial utilization of this product is transportation, and especially getting the bales to the coast. The colonial committee has sent an expedition of engineers to survey for a railroad from the coast town of Lome to Palime, in the interior.

POTTERY NEWS

An interesting resolution was passed at the last meeting of jiggermen's local No. 12, and it is one that will likely cause considerable discussion at the next national convention. It relates to the apprentice question, and the substance of it is that the manufacturers will stop the practice of placing a batter-out on a jigger when a journeyman jiggerman is available. The question has been discussed at length at several meetings of the local, but final action was not taken until this week. The local also proposes to establish an employment bureau. and when a jiggerman is out of work he is to notify the secretary, Walter McKeone. By this means manufacturers may be furnished with a man on short notice by notifying Mr. McKeone of a situation being open. The secretary is employed at the Wallace & Chetwynd. An hour before the body was to be taken to the cemetery the relatives of the dead man, five or six in number, went out into the garden adjoining the house and walked solemnly and silently around it. Each carried a lantern and kept his eyes fixed on the ground, as though he were looking for something. Finally they all halted in front of a large pile of stones and, laying aside their lanterns, proceeded to throw down the pile. After every stone had been removed they examined minutely the spot on which the pile had rested and then slowly and with bowed heads returned to the house. This is an old Norman custom, and it is observed in this instance because the dead man was a native of Gison. There is a tradition in Normandy that before burying a body all the ground around his dwelling should be searched in order to make sure that the soul has not hidden itself somewhere. At one time every family in Normandy faithfully observed this tradition, but now only a few pay heed to it.

To-States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

> It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument-the conclusion is selfevident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains Watrous, a well-known newspaper have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the York 10 years ago from Philadelphia. average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. #### REINSTATEMENT OF OLD MEN

By Railroads and Steamship Lines. He Said He Would Try to Secure. Unions Accepted - Believed, in Time, All Old Men Will Get Back.

Boston, March 14.-Yesterday was filled with conferences between representatives of the various labor unions and the city's business interests in which Gov. Crane, Mayor Collins, Secretary Easley, of the National Civic Federation and the state board of arbitration took important parts. Every one was fully impressed with the gravity of the situation and felt the absolute necessity of an immédiate settlement.

As early as 8 o'clock, Secretary Easley who had arrived from New York on the night train met a number of labo: leaders at Young's hotel where their side of the controversy was explained to him in detail.

At 12 o'clock those in attendance proceeded to the rooms of the state board of arbitration at the state house and met representatives of various mercantile bodies of the city, the officials of the various railroads and Mayor Collins when a free interchance of ideas was had for more than three hours.

Gov. Crane had a representative present.

Two Meetings Conferred.

The outcome of this meeting was the appointment of a committee of seven to devise some plan that might be mutually agreed upon as a basis of settlement in consultation with Governor Crane. This committee, representing the state board of arbitration, merchants and the labor unions, together with Secretary Easley, then waited upon the governor and were closeted with him for two hours. Meantime a large number of labor leaders had arrived at the state house and then went into conference in the council chamber, which adjoins the office of the governor.

The door between the rooms was a general exchange of ideas and tions. propositions between the two deliberative bodies.

Governor Crane, while impressing upon those present the fact that he pledges for any of the interested parties, made the following proposition:

When the conference with the governor ended nothing remained for the committee except to make its report in the board of arbitration rooms to the meeting which had delegated it.

The decision was at once reported to the Allied Freight Transportation Council at a special meeting last night and unanimously endorsed it.

All of the old men for whom places can be found will be taken back by the railroads today, but owing to the suddenness with which the strike ended and the large number of new men who have been installed it is likely that many of the old employes will today find no vacancies ready for them. DIAMOND BACK TERRAPIN.

Formerly Despised. They Are Now Considered a Delicacy. Half a century or so ago diamond back terrapin were fed to slaves and hogs. Today they are the rarest delicacy known to the epicurian world, says the Philadelphia North American. Then they sold for $1 a barrel, and laborers, when hiring out, specified that they must not be compelled to eat terrapin more than twice a week. Today a barrel is cheap at $800, and millionaires travel hundreds of miles for a chance to feast on this most delicious of all meats. Of course this means genuine diamond backs. There are many imita-

Every first class restaurant in the country features "terrapin a la Maryland" on its menu, but in not one case out of a hundred is the real terrapin served. The diner regales himself on what he believes to be Maryland's choicest dish. Instead he is merely eating fresh water turtles, "sliders" or 'North Carolina goldens."

The reason is simple. Restaurateurs don't serve real diamond backs because they can't get them. The world's total terrapin population does not exceed 25,000 of legal size, and fhese are confined to the shores of the Chesapeake bay, the only place that produces

Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York enjoy a monopoly. These three cities get practically the entire output, but few ever find their way across the Blue Ridge. The epicure unfortunate enough to be born in Chicago or St. Louis must either come east or forego the joys of terrapin.

To select a real diamond back amateurs should be guided by these distinguishing and characteristic markings: It is of a greenish, dark olive color, sometimes running to spotted gray, yellow on the plate which surrounds the shell and has concentric dark stripes along the plate on both shells. The sides of the head are a dirty white, sprinkled with small black spots. The bottom shell is of whitish yellow. The males are much larger than the females and have the concentric streaks much better defined. The female has the more delicate flesh. The male can be distinguished by his toe nails, which are much longer than those of the fe-
